New Congregational setting

This month we are learning a new Communion setting for regular use at Melbourne. At the beginning of the 10.30 service today, the Choir and I will introduce us to the St Mary's Setting by Revd. Anthony Caesar, concentrating on the Sanctus, Benedictus & Agnus Dei before we sing those later on in the service. There is a Congregational edition of the music available which we shall use to help learn it and that will be available each week too. During Communion today the choir will sing the Gloria from this setting before we introduce that in a similar fashion next week.

Anthony Caesar was Subdean of the Chapels Royal from 1979 to 1991, having previously been Canon Precentor and Vice-Dean of Winchester Cathedral. During this period he was also the music editor of our hymnbook, the New English Hymnal. In the 1991 Queen's Birthday Honours he was promoted to Commander of the Royal Victorian Order (CVO).

Simon Collins, Director of Music

Directory: Please note that there is a laminated directory with phone numbers (previously page 2 of the bulletin) now available on the noticeboard at the back of church should you need it. Copies of this are available by the notice board at the back of Church if you wish to keep one at home.

Illuminating the Tower

To make your booking, please call the church office - 862153. Donations to sponsor the lights for an evening should be placed in a clearly marked envelope and put in the Sunday collection or put through the Rectory letterbox.

Daily Prayer in church

Tuesday & Wednesday Morning Prayer 9.15 am

Tuesday to Thursday Evening Prayer 5.00 pm (BCP)

You will be very welcome occasionally or regularly. This church, all who live in this parish, and the needs of the world, are prayed for daily.

Thursdays at 9.15am Holy Communion

Choir Trips

There will be a trip to Chester on Saturday 29th October but the next trip will be on Saturday 20th August to Windsor and St. George's Chapel at the Castle, where the Choir will be singing the services on both the Saturday and Sunday of that weekend - Mark and Helen are looking forward to seeing everyone.

This will be the usual daytrip, leaving at 8.45a.m. and returning from Windsor at 6.30p.m. after Evensong in the Chapel. If anyone is interested in staying for the weekend as part of the Choir's group accommodation, do be in touch with me as soon as possible. There isn't a coach arranged for our weekend trips so you would need your own transport if wanting to stay longer than a day. simon.e.collins@btinternet.com , 01543 258777 or after a service. The sign-up list for the daytrip is now on the noticeboard. The cost will be £20 each but, if booked and paid for by 17th July, will be at the reduced rate of £18 each.

A pattern for daily prayer, so that, at home or at church, we can pray together

Monday: Those in great poverty or need.

Tuesday: Those who have asked for our prayers: Anne Brazier, Alison Emery, Fred Heafield, Kate Landenberger, Madge Limbert, Wendie Moore and Vicky Murray. Also those in Derby's hospitals and hospices. All at Pool Cottage.

Wednesday: Our group of parishes.

Thursday: The church worldwide. All Christian people. The local church. The Anglican Communion.

Friday: All in need, especially the hungry, poor and homeless.

The Departed

In our prayers this week, we can remember those who have died recently, among them, David White, and those whose anniversaries occur near this time including Judith Madden and Joy Rowatt.

Open Gardens TODAY- Dower House

The Dower House Garden is open today (19th June) from 10am – 5pm. If you would like to visit please bring this bulletin to get admission at the concessionary rate.

Griselda

Congratulations to the Ramathon runners!

Rachel and Andrew Coupe successfully completed the Derby Ramathon on Sunday 5th June. This was Rachel's first run (at any distance) and she would like to thank those who supported and sponsored her in aid of the Christian children's charity that she supports. Our daughter Helen was able to cheer Rachel and Andrew on as well, with a "flying" visit from Kenya where she works for Save the Children.

Nigel Coupe

Paul Fletcher-Read complete his half-marathon in 1 hour 59 minutes and 17 seconds and although found it a test of endurance plans to run in the Great North Run in September. He has raised £225 for Macmillan Cancer Support and would like to thank those who have generously supported him.

It is not too late to donate to either of these very worthy charities so please see one of the runners or the Church Wardens.

Jenny Peckham's First Quarter Peal – Well done, Jenny

Jenny Peckham rang her first quarter peal on Saturday 4th June, and at age 9, she is one of the youngest girls on record to achieve this. Jenny rang the quarter peal with her parents, Christian and Rachael, her grandmother, her godmother and Jenny Halliday. This is a momentous achievement for someone of her age and congratulations from all the Melbourne ringers.

Midsummerish festival at Whistlewood Common Saturday 2 July

Whistlewood Common (this church is a corporate member) is holding a mini-festival on 2 July from 2pm in the afternoon until 11 pm that evening. Ten local bands, afternoon teas, hog roast, vegetarian food, wheelbarrow racing, contemplation corner and more. Tickets £5 in advance from Fortey's, £10 on the gate, children under 11 free. Some parking on site but please walk or arrive by bus (stop is opposite the site) if you can. Come along for a lovely afternoon/evening and see how this great project has progressed/how you can be part of it if you are not already ! Facebook and www.whistlewoodcommon.org have more information.

The Readings at 8am and 10.30am:

The First Reading: Galatians 3.23 - end

Now before faith came, we were imprisoned and guarded under the law until faith would be revealed. Therefore the law was our disciplinarian until Christ came, so that we might be justified by faith. But now that faith has come, we are no longer subject to a disciplinarian, for in Christ Jesus you are all children of God through faith. As many of you as were baptized into Christ have clothed yourselves with Christ. There is no longer Jew or Greek, there is no longer slave or free, there is no longer male and female; for all of you are one in Christ Jesus. And if you belong to Christ, then you are Abraham's offspring, heirs according to the promise.

The Gospel Reading: Luke 8.26 -39

Then they arrived at the country of the Gerasenes, which is opposite Galilee. As he stepped out on land, a man of the city who had demons met him. For a long time he had worn no clothes, and he did not live in a house but in the tombs. When he saw Jesus, he fell down before him and shouted at the top of his voice, 'What have you to do with me, Jesus, Son of the Most High God? I beg you, do not torment me' – for Jesus had commanded the unclean spirit to come out of the man. (For many times it had seized him; he was kept under guard and bound with chains and shackles, but he would break the bonds and be driven by the demon into the wilds.) Jesus then asked him, 'What is your name?' He said, 'Legion'; for many demons had entered him. They begged him not to order them to go back into the abyss.

Now there on the hillside a large herd of swine was feeding; and the demons begged Jesus to let them enter these. So he gave them permission. Then the demons came out of the man and entered the swine, and the herd rushed down the steep bank into the lake and was drowned.

When the swineherds saw what had happened, they ran off and told it in the city and in the country. Then people came out to see what had happened, and when they came to Jesus, they found the man from whom the demons had gone sitting at the feet of Jesus, clothed and in his right mind. And they were afraid. Those who had seen it told them how the one who had been possessed by demons had been healed. Then all the people of the surrounding country of the Gerasenes asked Jesus to leave them; for they were seized with great fear. So he got into the boat and returned. The man from whom the demons had gone begged that he might be with him; but Jesus sent him away, saying, 'Return to your home, and declare how much God has done for you.' So he went away, proclaiming throughout the city how much Jesus had done for him.

A Prayer for the Benefice during this time of Vacancy

Holy God, you have welcomed each one of us in Jesus and called us to be His body in this place;
Send us your Holy Spirit at this time of uncertainty and change,
to fill us with vision, energy and faithfulness in prayer, that we may be true to our calling to bring new life to our community.

Guide with your heavenly wisdom
those who are to choose a new Incumbent for this parish, that the one we receive may be a wise and gentle shepherd of your people:
ready to serve us with joy, to build us up in faith,
and to lead by example in loving obedience to your Son,
our Saviour, Jesus Christ.

Amen
