Across the Benefice today

Melbourne:

8am - Revd Sandra Chantry

10.30am - Revd Margaret Jacques

6.30pm - Ven. Christopher Cunliffe, Archdeacon of Derby

Smisby:

5.30pm - Dr Nick Gravestock

Stanton

11.00am - No service here today

Ticknall

9.15am - Mrs Mary Hirst

We are very grateful for our guest clergy taking the services today.

Most of us will remember Margaret Jacques from the time she did a placement with us during her training for the priesthood. Margaret is now retired and she and Alan are living in their house in Melbourne. And it is a great pleasure to welcome the Archdeacon back to take Evensong.

Choir Trips

The sign-up list for the trip to Windsor on Saturday 20th August is now on the noticeboard at the back of church. This will be the usual daytrip, leaving at 8.45a.m. and returning from Windsor at 6.30pm after Evensong in the Chapel. Please get in touch with Simon Collins for more details on simon.e.collins@btinternet.com , 01543 258777 or after a service. The cost of the tickets will be £20 each.

Simon Collins, Director of Music

Important: Windsor Security

Mark is very kindly arranging for us to have tea with him before Evensong. Castle security requires us to submit a list of full names, addresses and dates of birth ahead of our visit; this is mandatory for access to be permitted. Unfortunately people who do not comply will not be able to take part. Please see Joanna or Linda with this information by the end of this month, Sunday 31st July. It would help if you already have your details written down to pass on to either of us or send by email. Be assured that your details will remain confidential and will not be displayed on the noticeboard.

Thank you ,

Linda (linda.latchford136@gmail.com)

A pattern for daily prayer, so that, at home or at church, we can pray together

Monday: Those in great poverty or need.

Tuesday: Those who have asked for our prayers: Anne Brazier, Alison Emery, Ann Haynes, Fred Heafield, Madge Limbert, Wendie Moore and Vicky Murray. Also those in Derby's hospitals and hospices. All at Pool Cottage.

Wednesday: Our group of parishes.

Thursday: The church worldwide. All Christian people. The local church. The Anglican Communion.

Friday: All in need, especially the hungry, poor and homeless.

The Departed

In our prayers this week, we can remember those who have died recently, among them John Cope, and those whose anniversaries occur near this time including Marjorie Foster, Ernest Fitchen and Reg Moore.

Gradual Psalm 138

- 1 I will give thanks to you O | Lord • with my | whole heart
before the | gods will | I sing | praise to you.
- 2 I will bow down towards your holy temple and praise your name —>
because of your | love and | faithfulness;
for you have glorified your | name • and your | word a-bove |
all things.
- 3 In the day that I called to you you | answered | me;
you | put new | strength • in my | soul.
- 4 All the kings of the earth shall | praise you • O | Lord;
for they have | heard the | words • of your | mouth.

- 5 They shall sing of the | ways • of the | Lord;
that | great • is the | glory • of the | Lord.
- 6 Though the Lord be high he watches | over the | lowly;
as for the proud he re- | gards them | from a- | far.
- 7 Though I walk in the midst of trouble | you • will pre- | serve me;
you will stretch forth your hand against the fury of my enemies * | your right | hand will | save me.
- 8 The Lord shall make good his | purpose | for me;
your loving-kindness O Lord endures for ever *
for- | sake • not the | work • of your | hands.

The Readings at 8am and 10.30am:

The First Reading: Colossians 2: 6-15

As you therefore have received Christ Jesus the Lord, continue to live your lives in him, rooted and built up in him and established in the faith, just as you were taught, abounding in thanksgiving.

See to it that no one takes you captive through philosophy and empty deceit, according to human tradition, according to the elemental spirits of the universe, and not according to Christ. For in him the whole fullness of deity dwells bodily, and you have come to fullness in him, who is the head of every ruler and authority. In him also you were circumcised with a spiritual circumcision, by putting off the body of the flesh in the circumcision of Christ; when you were buried with him in baptism, you were also raised with him through faith in the power of God, who raised him from the dead. And when you were dead in trespasses and the uncircumcision of your flesh, God made you alive together with him, when he forgave us all our trespasses, erasing the record that stood against us with its legal demands. He set this aside, nailing it to the cross. He disarmed the rulers and authorities and made a public example of them, triumphing over them in it.

The Gospel Reading: Luke 11. 1-13

Since many have undertaken to set down an orderly account of the events that have been fulfilled among us, just as they were handed on to us by those who from the beginning were eyewitnesses and servants of the word, I too decided, after investigating everything carefully from the very first, to write an orderly account for you, most excellent Theophilus, so that you may know the truth concerning the things about which you have been instructed.

In the days of King Herod of Judea, there was a priest named Zechariah, who belonged to the priestly order of Abijah. His wife was a descendant of Aaron, and her name was Elizabeth. Both of them were righteous before God, living blamelessly according to all the commandments and regulations of the Lord. But they had no children, because Elizabeth was barren, and both were getting on in years. Once when he was serving as priest before God and his section was on duty, he was chosen by lot, according to the custom of the priesthood, to enter the sanctuary of the Lord and offer incense. Now at the time of the incense-offering, the whole assembly of the people was praying outside. Then there appeared to him an angel of the Lord, standing at the right side of the altar of incense. When Zechariah saw him, he was terrified; and fear overwhelmed him. But the angel said to him, 'Do not be afraid, Zechariah, for your prayer has been heard. Your wife Elizabeth will bear you a son, and you will name him John.

Recessional Hymn

1 Great is thy faithfulness, O God my Father,
there is no shadow of turning with thee;
thou changest not, thy compassions they fail not,
as thou hast been thou for ever wilt be.

Great is thy faithfulness!

Great is thy faithfulness!

*Morning by morning new mercies I see;
all I have needed thy hand hath provided,
great is thy faithfulness, Lord, unto me.*

2 Summer and winter, and spring-time and harvest,
sun, moon and stars in their courses above,
join with all nature in manifold witness to thy great faithfulness, mercy and love.

3 Pardon for sin and a peace that endureth,
thine own dear presence to cheer and to guide;
strength for today and bright hope for tomorrow,
blessings all mine, with ten thousand beside!
