“Thank you! “

Thank you so much to everyone who has made us welcome now that we have returned to Melbourne on my retirement after 13 years of full time stipendiary ministry. It is lovely to be back in Melbourne and as Allan retires in 2017 and together we settle in to a new routine I hope that we will be able to support you and make new friendships for the future, and renew old friendships from the past.

Thank you again for the lovely welcome.

Yours in Christ

Revd. Margaret and Allan Jacques.

And thank you to Margaret for presiding at our 10.30 service last week. It was good to welcome her back!

Message from Kit Emery – Brave the Shave

Earlier this year, my sister-in-law Alison Emery, was diagnosed with breast cancer. She has had to have a mastectomy and chemotherapy.

Thank you all for keeping her in your prayers, and please continue to pray for her.

When I heard that Ali would be having chemotherapy, I decided that I would shave the hair off my head, to show my support and solidarity with her, while she goes through the ravages of the chemotherapy.

Then I heard about the Macmillan Cancer Support fund raising event "Brave the Shave" on the radio, and I thought it would be a good idea to try and raise some money for this cause at the same time as showing my support for Ali.

Please can you assist my fund raising with a small donation, either using the online donation link

<https://bravetheshave.org.uk/shavers/christopher-kit-emery/>

Or with a small cash donation. I will have a donation sheet with me to fill in.

I shall be keeping my hair off for the month of August.

How our money could help

- £10 spent on the Macmillan Support Line could lead to us helping someone claim £409 in benefits
- £185 with could pay for a Macmillan Grant that helps a person living with cancer heat their home.
- £360 could help run a large Macmillan information and support centre for a day.
- £1,020 could fund a Macmillan nurse for a week, helping people living with cancer and their families.

Thank you in advance

Kit

From Charlotte Hall

A good friend of mine in France, Aurélia, has a friend called Sebastien whose daughter Lena (who is 16) would like to spend about two weeks in England this summer or next in order to improve her English. Aurélia lived here in Melbourne for a year and knows what a friendly place it is, so hopes that a family from Melbourne with a daughter of similar age would be able to welcome Lena for a short stay. There could then of course be a reciprocal visit to France to stay with Lena's family if the girls get on well! Sebastien would love to hear directly from any interested families: his email is

The Readings at 8.00 and 10.30

The First Reading Colossians 3: 1-11

So if you have been raised with Christ, seek the things that are above, where Christ is, seated at the right hand of God. Set your minds on things that are above, not on things that are on earth, for you have died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God. When Christ who is your life is revealed, then you also will be revealed with him in glory.

Put to death, therefore, whatever in you is earthly: fornication, impurity, passion, evil desire, and greed (which is idolatry). On account of these the wrath of God is coming on those who are disobedient. These are the ways you also once followed, when you were living that life. But now you must get rid of all such things – anger, wrath, malice, slander, and abusive language from your mouth. Do not lie to one another, seeing that you have stripped off the old self with its practices and have clothed yourselves with the new self, which is being renewed in knowledge according to the image of its creator. In that renewal there is no longer Greek and Jew, circumcised and uncircumcised, barbarian, Scythian, slave and free; but Christ is all and in all!

The Gospel Reading: Luke 12. 13-21

Someone in the crowd said to him, 'Teacher, tell my brother to divide the family inheritance with me.' But he said to him, 'Friend, who set me to be a judge or arbitrator over you?' And he said to them, 'Take care! Be on your guard against all kinds of greed; for one's life does not consist in the abundance of possessions.'

Then he told them a parable: 'The land of a rich man produced abundantly. And he thought to himself, "What should I do, for I have no place to store my crops?" Then he said, "I will do this: I will pull down my barns and build larger ones, and there I will store all my grain and my goods. And I will say to my soul, Soul, you have ample goods laid up for many years; relax, eat, drink, be merry.'" But God said to him, "You fool! This very night your life is being demanded of you. And the things you have prepared, whose will they be?" So it is with those who store up treasures for themselves but are not rich towards God.'
