Baptisms today at 2pm:

Shy Eulalia Brundit and Willow Illyria Brundit are being brought for baptism at Melbourne today - a very warm welcome to them and to their family and friends.

Church Choir at Windsor: This weekend our Choir will have both the privilege and pleasure of returning to St George's Chapel, Windsor Castle following an invitation received the last time we sang there. We are singing Mattins, Eucharist and Evensong today as well as Choral Evensong yesterday. Since we booked, Mark Powell has been appointed a Residentiary Canon there, so it will give us a chance to see him and Helen once again. I would like to thank all those of you who supported the day trip yesterday and hope you had an enjoyable time. Here at Melbourne today, we are most grateful to John Lord (Organist at Smisby) and to Henry Wilkins (a former Churchwarden and bi-weekly Organist at Melbourne Catholic Church) for playing the organ at our 10.30am and 6.30pm services respectively.

Simon Collins, Director of Music

SUNDAY CRÈCHE: It has been customary for two volunteers to kindly provide a crèche facility during the 10.30 Eucharist service in school holidays when Junior Church does not run. Our list of helpers has diminished so if you feel called to help please contact Joanna or Linda for more information. It would be very helpful if this provision could be maintained.

Goodbye and Thank you to Maggie and Ben Kershaw:

Maggie and Ben have moved this week back to their roots in Norfolk. They have been stalwarts of the church and community for many years. Ben and the girls, Megan and Bethany, were involved with the choir, Maggie has done a wonderful and much appreciated job as wedding verger, Ben has been the Stewardship Officer, Maggie has taught in Junior Church and more recently been active in Messy Church, as well as sidesperson's duties, coffee-making and all the other jobs which keep the church functioning. It was always a great joy on Easter and Christmas mornings to see the door open and the whole family enter. We will miss them and want to give them thanks for everything they have done and given as well as their friendship over the years. We wish them every happiness in their new life and hope they will stay in touch.

Message from Kit Emery – Brave the Shave: Earlier this year, my sister-in-law Alison Emery, was diagnosed with breast cancer. She has had to have a mastectomy and chemotherapy. Thank you all for keeping her in your prayers, please continue to pray for her. When I heard that Ali would be having chemotherapy, I decided that I would shave the hair off my head, to show my support and solidarity with her, while she goes through the ravages of chemotherapy. Then I heard about the Macmillan Cancer Support fund raising event "Brave the Shave" on the radio, and I thought it would be a good idea to try and raise some money for this cause at the same time as showing my support for Ali. Please can you assist my fund raising with a small donation, either using the online donation link

<https://bravetheshave.org.uk/shavers/christopher-kit-emery/> or with a small cash donation. I will have a donation sheet with me to fill in.

I shall be keeping my hair off for the month of August.

How our money could help

- £10 spent on the Macmillan Support Line could lead to us helping someone claim £409 in benefits
- £185 could pay for a Macmillan Grant that helps a person living with cancer heat their home.
- £360 could help run a large Macmillan information and support centre for a day.
- £1,020 could fund a Macmillan nurse for a week, helping people living with cancer and their families. Thank you in advance, Kit

The Readings at 8am and 10.30am

The First Reading: Hebrews 12.18-end

You have not come to something that can be touched, a blazing fire, and darkness, and gloom, and a tempest, and the sound of a trumpet, and a voice whose words made the hearers beg that not another word be spoken to them. (For they could not endure the order that was given, 'If even an animal touches the mountain, it shall be stoned to death.' Indeed, so terrifying was the sight that Moses said, 'I tremble with fear.') But you have come to Mount Zion and to the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, and to innumerable angels in festal gathering, and to the assembly of the firstborn who are enrolled in heaven, and to God the judge of all, and to the spirits of the righteous made perfect, and to Jesus, the mediator of a new covenant, and to the sprinkled blood that speaks a better word than the blood of Abel. See that you do not refuse the one who is speaking; for if they did not escape when they refused the one who warned them on earth, how much less will we escape if we reject the one who warns from heaven! At that time his voice shook the earth; but now he has promised, 'Yet once more I will shake not only the earth but also the heaven.' This phrase 'Yet once more' indicates the removal of what is shaken—that is, created things—so that what cannot be shaken may remain. Therefore, since we are receiving a kingdom that cannot be shaken, let us give thanks, by which we offer to God an acceptable worship with reverence and awe; for indeed our God is a consuming fire.

The Gospel Reading: Luke 13.10-17

Now Jesus was teaching in one of the synagogues on the sabbath. And just then there appeared a woman with a spirit that had crippled her for eighteen years. She was bent over and was quite unable to stand up straight. When Jesus saw her, he called her over and said, 'Woman, you are set free from your ailment.' When he laid his hands on her, immediately she stood up straight and began praising God. But the leader of the synagogue, indignant because Jesus had cured on the sabbath, kept saying to the crowd, 'There are six days on which work ought to be done; come on those days and be cured, and not on the sabbath day.' But the Lord answered him and said, 'You hypocrites! Does not each of you on the sabbath untie his ox or his donkey from the manger, and lead it away to give it water? And ought not this woman, a daughter of Abraham whom Satan bound for eighteen long years, be set free from this bondage on the sabbath day?' When he said this, all his opponents were put to shame; and the entire crowd was rejoicing at all the wonderful things that he was doing.

The Gloria at 10.30am:

Glory to God! Our hearts to you we raise!
Joy and peace on earth, in highest heaven praise!
Songs of adoration, Lord to you we bring
Praising your great goodness, Father heav'nly King.
Glory to God! Our hearts to you we raise!
Joy and peace on earth, in highest heaven praise!

Son of the Father, bearing this world's sin,
Lamb of God, have mercy, grant us peace within.
You O Christ are holy, you alone are Lord
With the Holy Spirit evermore adored.
Glory to God! Our hearts to you we raise!
Joy and peace on earth, in highest heaven praise!

(Tune: Maccabaeus)
