The Bishop of Derby's Harvest Appeal 2016:

Dear Friends,

The Harvest Appeal 2016 is in aid of the Ray of Hope project led by the Cathedral Relief Service Kolkata. Kolkata has one of India's largest slums with over a third of the population living in poverty. All family members have to work with women and children bearing the burden of this.

The Cathedral Relief Service is establishing 'Nari Dana' a new dressmaking training programme for women, and resourcing an education programme 'Ray of Hope' for children, to allow them to avoid exploitative work, such as prostitution and sweatshops.

To support the fundraising for this project, this year there is a new CD 'Taste and See' with choral music and readings from Luke's Gospel which will be on sale at £10. There is also a new book 'The Church - a Workshop of Salvation' which is on sale for £5. CDs and books will be available from the Bishop's Office and Derby Church House.

Please support the Cathedral Relief Service Kolkata to give a Ray of Hope to women and children in the slums.

With every blessing. Yours ever, +Alastair

[Envelopes to support the Bishop's Harvest Appeal 2016 will be given out at all services today for return next Sunday]

Harvest Preparation: The church will be prepared for Harvest from 10am on Saturday 8th October. If you can contribute to the Harvest decoration in any way, please contact Margaret Murray-Leslie on 862921. Helpers are always welcome. Thank you. Sheena and Margaret

Organist today

I would like to thank Dr. Laurence Rogers for playing the Organ today at both the 10.30a.m. and 6.30p.m. services. It is heartening to know that when I'm absent I can leave both the Choir and the Organ in such capable hands and that his regular contributions to our worship are much appreciated. Laurence was my predecessor here from 1975 until 2002.

THE SECRET IS OUT - SMP ANNOUNCE DETAILS OF THEIR NEXT PRODUCTION

Melbourne Assembly Rooms, 3rd, 4th and 5th November 2016

Do the names Mainwairing, Jones, Frazer, Pike and Walker mean anything to you? If they do, you may want to see St Michael's Players next production entitled: "DON'T PANIC! DON'T PANIC! - Melbourne Home Guard Puts One Up 'Em". We take an alternative look at how Melbourne may have prepared to defend itself during the Second World War and how the activities of a German spy ring may well have been thwarted by some unlikely local heroes. Not to be missed! Tickets are now on sale at £10 each (prices held for the fifth year!). You can get them from Fortey's in the Market Place or just speak to Gordon Hughes (07837 592596).

Jazz evening

The Friends of Melbourne Parish Church will welcome the Gascoyne O'Higgins Quartet to the church on Friday 14th October for a evening of jazz. This is a rare chance to hear some great jazz in a wonderful setting, as Derbyshire born saxophonist Dave O'Higgins, bassist Geoff Gascoyne, pianist Graham Harvey and drummer Seb de Krom make the most of our building's fantastic acoustics. Tickets (at £10 each) are available through the Melbourne Festival Booking office (07765 819428) or from Gordon Hughes (07837 592 596).

Chillies:

Are there any chilli fans in the parish? There are LOTS of chilli plants going spare at The Dower House - for some inexplicable reason I have grown dozens despite not liking chilli! Any one wanting one or more plants just let me know: I will be thrilled to get rid of them before I chuck them on the compost heap. Best wishes, (cool) Griselda

The Readings at 8am and 10.30am

The First Reading: 2 Timothy 1.1-14

Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God, for the sake of the promise of life that is in Christ Jesus, to Timothy, my beloved child: grace, mercy, and peace from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord. I am grateful to God – whom I worship with a clear conscience, as my ancestors did – when I remember you constantly in my prayers night and day. Recalling your tears, I long to see you so that I may be filled with joy. I am reminded of your sincere faith, a faith that lived first in your grandmother Lois and your mother Eunice and now, I am sure, lives in you. For this reason I remind you to rekindle the gift of God that is within you through the laying on of my hands; for God did not give us a spirit of cowardice, but rather a spirit of power and of love and of self-discipline. Do not be ashamed, then, of the testimony about our Lord or of me his prisoner, but join with me in suffering for the gospel, relying on the power of God, who saved us and called us with a holy calling, not according to our works but according to his own purpose and grace. This grace was given to us in Christ Jesus before the ages began, but it has now been revealed through the appearing of our Saviour Christ Jesus, who abolished death and brought life and immortality to light through the gospel. For this gospel I was appointed a herald and an apostle and a teacher, and for this reason I suffer as I do. But I am not ashamed, for I know the one in whom I have put my trust, and I am sure that he is able to guard until that day what I have entrusted to him. Hold to the standard of sound teaching that you have heard from me, in the faith and love that are in Christ Jesus. Guard the good treasure entrusted to you, with the help of the Holy Spirit living in us.

The Gospel Reading: Luke 17.5-10

The apostles said to the Lord, 'Increase our faith!' The Lord replied, 'If you had faith the size of a mustard seed, you could say to this mulberry tree, "Be uprooted and planted in the sea", and it would obey you. 'Who among you would say to your slave who has just come in from ploughing or tending sheep in the field, "Come here at once and take your place at the table"? Would you not rather say to him, "Prepare supper for me, put on your apron and serve me while I eat and drink; later you may eat and drink"? Do you thank the slave for doing what was commanded? So you also, when you have done all that you were ordered to do, say, "We are worthless slaves; we have done only what we ought to have done!"'

Gradual Psalm at 10.30am:

John Goss

- 1 Fret not because of | evil- | doers:
be not | jealous of | those • who do | wrong.
- 2 For they shall soon | wither like | grass:
and like the | green herb | fade a- | way.
- 3 Trust in the Lord and be | doing | good:
dwell in the | land • and be | nourished with | truth.
- 4 Let your de- | light be • in the | Lord:
and he will | give you • your | heart's de- | sire.
- 5 Commit your way to the Lord and put your | trust in | him:
and | he will | bring it • to | pass.
- 6 He will make your righteousness as | clear • as the | light:
and your just | dealing | as the | noonday.
- 7 Be still before the Lord and | wait for | him:
do not fret over those that prosper as they | follow their | evil | schemes.
- 8 Refrain from anger and a- | bandon | wrath:
do not | fret lest • you be | moved to • do | evil.
- † 9 For evildoers shall be | cut | off:
but those who wait upon the | Lord • shall pos- | sess the | land.
