Baptism today at 10.30am:

Emma Grace Brown is being brought for baptism at the Eucharist today - a very warm welcome to her and to her family and friends. All of the words for the service can be found in the Order of Service.

A message from our next Rector, Steve Short:

Dear everyone,

On behalf of Rachel, Sophie (5), Benjamin (2) and myself, we are thrilled to be coming to Melbourne, Smisby, Stanton-by-Bridge and Ticknall. Thank you so much for all the kind messages of welcome and best wishes that have been heading our way over the past few days. I am also thrilled at being appointed as your next Rector and I would greatly value your prayers as I will be praying for you.

We hope to make the move to Melbourne just after Christmas before travelling back to Barlborough for my final service there on January 8th for Epiphany. The date for my installation has yet to be decided but I hope to begin formally working together towards the end of January. As a family, we very much look forward to getting to know you and you us as we seek to continue to build God's Kingdom together.

Every blessing, Steve

Collection and Party for David Thomas's last service with us on October 30th:

As you know David's last service is on October 30th at Melbourne. We will be having a bring and share lunch for him in the Senior Citizen's Centre after the service, approximately 12.30pm start. Contributions of finger food for the party, which can be brought to the Centre before the service, will be very welcome. We hope as many people as possible will be able to come to say farewell.

We are having a collection for David to thank him for his ministry here at Melbourne so if you would like to contribute, please see the Wardens with your gift. Many thanks.

Dean of Derby's final service - Tuesday 1st November:

Following John Davies' invitation for us to attend his final service at the Cathedral, several people have enquired whether we might run a coach. To get an indication of whether this would be viable, please sign the list at the back of Church or contact me on 01543 258777 or by email simon.e.collins@btinternet.com Simon Collins, Director of Music

Mothers' Union Event: Everyone is invited to a Cuppa and Cake day at 2 Dunncliffe Lane on October 25th from 10am-12noon and 2.30-4.30pm in aid of Safe and Sound, a charity caring for vulnerable girls in Derby.

"DON'T PANIC! DON'T PANIC"

Melbourne Assembly Rooms, 3rd, 4th and 5th November 2016

Do the names Mainwaring, Jones, Frazer, Pike and Walker mean anything to you? If they do, you may want to see St Michael's Players next production entitled: "DON'T PANIC! DON'T PANIC! - Melbourne Home Guard Puts One Up 'Em". We take an alternative look at how Melbourne may have prepared to defend itself during the Second World War and how the activities of a German spy ring may well have been thwarted by some unlikely local heroes. Not to be missed! Tickets are now on sale at £10 each (prices held for the fifth year!). You can get them from Forteys in the Market Place or just speak to Gordon Hughes (07837 592596).

Wanted : Competent Keyboard player/organist.

For the past few years I have been leading the Carol Service for HMS Sherwood (Royal Navy Reserve) Foresters House, Chilwell Depot near Nottingham and one of my organists from the Benefice I was Rector in provided the music. Now I have retired and moved to Melbourne I am looking for a competent keyboard player/organist to lead the service with me. The service is set for the evening of the 13th December 2016. You would need to provide your own keyboard, amplifier and transport.

The service takes the form of a shortened 9 Lessons and Carols and is followed by the Annual Prize Giving and Christmas Bash. It takes place on the Drill Deck at HMS Sherwood and is attended by the Royal Navy Reserve and their families, and often the Royal Engineers and Royal Marine Reserve come along as well. The musical content is Christmas Carols, the National Anthem and the formal part of the evening usually concludes with "We wish you a merry Christmas" or some such Christmassy song before everyone goes up to the Mess for the Christmas Bash.

If there is anyone who would be prepared to provide this support to our Armed Forces please contact me by return on 01332 865842 or email margaret@ajacques.plus.com

Although fees are not paid, a contribution towards travelling expenses can be made if required.

Revd Margaret Jacques.

The Readings at 8am and 10.30am

The First Reading: 2 Timothy 4.5-17

As for you, always be sober, endure suffering, do the work of an evangelist, carry out your ministry fully. As for me, I am already being poured out as a libation, and the time of my departure has come. I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith. From now on there is reserved for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, will give to me on that day, and not only to me but also to all who have longed for his appearing. Do your best to come to me soon, for Demas, in love with this present world, has deserted me and gone to Thessalonica; Crescens has gone to Galatia, Titus to Dalmatia. Only Luke is with me. Get Mark and bring him with you, for he is useful in my ministry. I have sent Tychicus to Ephesus. When you come, bring the cloak that I left with Carpus at Troas, also the books, and above all the parchments. Alexander the coppersmith did me great harm; the Lord will pay him back for his deeds. You also must beware of him, for he strongly opposed our message. At my first defence no one came to my support, but all deserted me. May it not be counted against them! But the Lord stood by me and gave me strength, so that through me the message might be fully proclaimed and all the Gentiles might hear it. So I was rescued from the lion's mouth.

The Gospel Reading: Luke 10.1-9

After this the Lord appointed seventy others and sent them on ahead of him in pairs to every town and place where he himself intended to go. He said to them, 'The harvest is plentiful, but the labourers are few; therefore ask the Lord of the harvest to send out labourers into his harvest. Go on your way. See, I am sending you out like lambs into the midst of wolves. Carry no purse, no bag, no sandals; and greet no one on the road. Whatever house you enter, first say, "Peace to this house!" And if anyone is there who shares in peace, your peace will rest on that person; but if not, it will return to you. Remain in the same house, eating and drinking whatever they provide, for the labourer deserves to be paid. Do not move about from house to house. Whenever you enter a town and its people welcome you, eat what is set before you; cure the sick who are there, and say to them, "The kingdom of God has come near to you."

Offertory Hymn at 10.30am:

1. Saint Luke, belov'd physician,
with honour now recall,
who served his Master's mission,
who ministered to Paul;
whose skill to distant ages
bequeathed a gift unpriced,
a gospel in whose pages
we see the face of Christ.

2. He tells for us the stories of Jesus here on earth,
the unsung pains and glories
that marked the church's birth;
the Spirit's pow'r in preaching,
the contrite sinner freed,
the grace and mercy reaching our deepest human need.

3. For all who work our healing
we lift our hearts in pray'r,
the love of God revealing
in science, skill and care:
his gifts be still imparted
to those who make us whole,
like Luke the tender-hearted,
physician of the soul.

Recessional Hymn at 10.30am:

1. I, the Lord of sea and sky,
I have heard my people cry;
all who dwell in dark and sin
my hand will save.
I, who made the stars of night,
I will make their darkness bright.
Who will bear my light to them?
Whom shall I send?

*Here I am, Lord. Is it I, Lord?
I have heard you calling in the night. I will go Lord, if you lead me; I will hold your people in my heart.*

2. I, the Lord of snow and rain,
I have borne my people's pain;
I have wept for love of them
- they turn away.
I will break their hearts of stone,
give them hearts for love alone;
I will speak my word to them.
Whom shall I send?

Here I am, Lord....

3. I, the Lord of wind and flame
I will tend the poor and lame,
I will set a feast for them
- my hand will save.
Finest bread I will provide till their hearts are satisfied;
I will give my life to them.
Whom shall I send?

Here I am, Lord....

Gloria at 10.30am:

Glory to God! Our hearts to you we raise!
Joy and peace on earth, in highest heaven praise!
Songs of adoration, Lord to you we bring Praising your great goodness, Father heav'nly King.
Glory to God! Our hearts to you we raise!
Joy and peace on earth, in highest heaven praise!

Son of the Father, bearing this world's sin,
Lamb of God, have mercy, grant us peace within.
You O Christ are holy, you alone are Lord
With the Holy Spirit evermore adored.
Glory to God! Our hearts to you we raise!
Joy and peace on earth, in highest heaven praise!

(Tune: Maccabaeus)
