Anthem: Holy is the true light Harris

Memorial Candles: Give rest, O Christ Kiev melody

In Remembrance (from 'Requiem') Eleanor Daley

Psalm 23 Hylton Stewart

Nunc Dimittis: Gibbons Short Service

Organ Voluntary: Nimrod Edward Elgar

Angels' Delight:

Seventeen happy little angels marked All Saints' tide by listening to a story about the call of the first disciples – ordinary folk like us, called to be saints. Singing was enhanced by an orchestra, or Big Band, of percussion instruments and, under the guidance of Carol and Carolyn, fishes were decorated and caught in a green net. Who remembers singing 'I will make you Fishers of Men'? The children are now feeling very much at home in church and it is delightful to see solemn infants absorbed in playing with colourful bricks or a wooded puzzle, older toddlers playing together or exploring the pews and pillars. One tiny child found the perfect seat for herself between two pillars in the chancel.

Thank you for the gift of a beautiful dolls' pram complete with twin babies and for the lovely little rag doll wearing enviable red shoes. The pram was raced up and down the aisle by both boys and girls. Thank you, too, to Margaret and Ann who came at the end to help with the great clear-up. And to Carol for the delightful books.

Do have a look at our fishing pictures and the photos and come and see us in action on the 15th.     Alison Gregory

Mothers' Union News:

As we have not held our usual meeting this month we have booked a table at the Melbourne Tea Rooms for lunch on Tuesday 21st November at 12noon. Please let me know nearer the time on 863139 if you are able to come.

Ros Bell

Fancy A Cuppa:

The next session is on Tuesday November 14th from 10.30am – 12 noon at the Senior Citizens' Centre. The speaker will be Viv Toon on 'Knitting 7000 poppies as a commemoration of Derby City's fallen (How the Project started; where she is up to; and how you can help). £1 for tea/coffee - £1 for home-made cake. A warm welcome extended to all.

CAKE BAKERS NEEDED

It is that time of the year again: the Autumn Fair is on the horizon and one of the bestselling items at the event are cakes and we never have too many. If you can bake a cake for the stall or even two it would be absolutely great. Cakes can be brought to the Assembly Rooms on Saturday 18th November before 10am wrapped and ready for sale. I know what excellent cake bakers we have in the congregation so please use your talents for this very worthy cause - Melbourne Church.

Thanks to Shirley:

Shirley Granelli, for so many years our Sacristan, has now decided that the time for retirement has arrived. We thank Shirley for all her many years of unstinting work on our behalf. We are so grateful she has been there to get us all organised and set up for the church services and we shall miss her indeed. She always knew when there was something to be found, laundry to be done, candles to be refreshed, and so many jobs besides. Many thanks Shirley for making our lives a little bit easier.

The Wardens would love to hear from anyone who would be prepared to take a turn at laundering the linen that is used at the altar. Ideally this would be done on a rota system, say once a month but the more people who volunteer the less often your turn will come round.. Please speak to Joanna Hocknell or Cliff Warner after any service if you think this is something you would like to do.

Once again, Shirley, many thanks and a happy retirement to you.

Kate Landenberger

Concert in Church:

Melbourne Male Voice Choir are hosting a joint concert in Church with the Junior School Choir on Saturday 11th November, 7pm. Tickets are £2.50 or £5 for a family. The Church already has links with the school with pupils visiting throughout the year, but this is an opportunity for parents to be included too. It would be wonderful if members of the congregation were also to attend in support, not just of the choirs, but our school links. Cliff Warner has tickets.

Rocking Fundraising!

A mention of thanks to everyone who participated in, prayed for and donated to Macmillan Cancer Support at the recent October fashion show and Saturday party. Special mention to everyone who got stuck in for the show preparations and grafted hard on the night. Your support and generosity has sent £2000 to Macmillan. Fantastic. So forget Milan! and look out for the next event .....Karen Grewcock

Arras 2017:

It was a cheerful and early autumnal start last Thursday 26th. With 27 passengers on board with church members and choir members from Melbourne and Ticknall, and friends and family we were looking forward to a few days in Arras to explore French culture, First World War history, Second World War history, and generally get away from it all. A smooth transition to the Channel Ports and a quick and uneventful Tunnel crossing, we found ourselves in Calais en route to Arras, a relatively short 75 minutes drive.

Delighted to say we arrived at the hotel in plenty of time to freshen up, explore the city and find somewhere to eat. I was in pursuit of Moules et Frites and was not disappointed! The following morning we headed to The Wellington Tunnels. An awesome monument to commemorate astonishing bravery by our Commonwealth forces who with guts and tenacity managed to excavate and construct a labyrinth of tunnels under Arras with the purpose of sheltering allied forces and more importantly, concealing thousands of troops for surprise attack, Trojan Horse style... The monument was of particular interest to our New Zealand born passenger Meryl as New Zealand engineers executed the construction! At 20 meters down, it took a brave group of people to view it! A delightful lunch followed with the afternoon free to again explore Arras including the Arras Cathedral with its own chequered past having been destroyed twice but rebuilt after the first World War in a sympathetic manner. After another group dinner Friday night and the following morning time for a quick reccy into Arras for the Saturday Market, we were on the road again arriving in Melbourne early evening having in effect (with clock changes) gained two hours...

I am looking for a tour idea for 2018. If you have any suggestions, I would love to hear them.

Wendy Robinson

The Derwent Singers present:

'Remembrance'

The Readings at 8am and 10.30am:

First Reading: 1 John 3.1-3

See what love the Father has given us, that we should be called children of God; and that is what we are. The reason the world does not know us is that it did not know him. Beloved, we are God's children now; what we will be has not yet been revealed. What we do know is this: when he is revealed, we will be like him, for we will see him as he is. And all who have this hope in him purify themselves, just as he is pure.

The Gospel Reading: Matthew 5.1-12

When Jesus saw the crowds, he went up the mountain; and after he sat down, his disciples came to him. Then he began to speak, and taught them, saying:

'Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

'Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted.

'Blessed are the meek, for they will inherit the earth.

'Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be filled.

'Blessed are the merciful, for they will receive mercy.

'Blessed are the pure in heart, for they will see God.

'Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God.

'Blessed are those who are persecuted for righteousness' sake, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

'Blessed are you when people revile you and persecute you and utter all kinds of evil against you falsely on my account. Rejoice and be glad, for your reward is great in heaven, for in the same way they persecuted the prophets who were before you.

Additional Collect:

God of holiness,
your glory is proclaimed in every age:
as we rejoice in the faith of your saints,
inspire us to follow their example
with boldness and joy;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.
