Choral Evensong Strawberries and Prosecco....

Tonight is the last Choral Evensong before our summer holidays (resuming in September). The choir invite you to join them for Strawberries and Prosecco after this lovely celebration of worship and music. As always, Choral Evensong is at 6.30pm. The Choir

Back-up for our Sacristy team:

Occasionally our Sacristy team finds itself a little shorthanded (over holidays etc.). Ideally the team should be three persons strong. If you feel you would like to join the team to help prepare the church for Sunday worship, you would be very welcome to come along on a Saturday afternoon at around 4pm to see what it entails. Full training would be given. Please contact Joy Hill or Ann Hammond via the Parish Office (862153). Kate Landenberger

Are you a contact person for a church group?

We are putting together a new church directory listing various church organisations and officers.

Because of the new GDPR legislation, we need your permission to include you in the list.

If you are a contact person for any church organisation, please can you let Rachel Coupe or Kate know:

- (1) The name of the organisation;
- (2) Your role in that organisation
- (3) Your name;
- (4) As many of the following that you are happy to go out to the public - address, phone number(s), email address

Thank you! Rachel Coupe 01332 416152 / rachel@coupe.me.uk

“Living Waters: For our next meeting on Tuesday July 16th 10.30am we go on a Summer Tour. The meeting will be hosted at Alison’s, 2 Dunncliffe Lane, Melbourne. Rosie will be leading us, and our worship will be based on a Julian Meeting, where we will focus on a passage of scripture and meditate on it in silence for about 15 -20 minutes, finishing with a closing prayer. Afterwards we shall share our thoughts and ideas about the use of silence in our personal worship and public liturgy followed, of course by Table Fellowship. Please will you all let Alison know well before hand whether or not you are coming so she can re-arrange furniture and prepare refreshments. Revd Margaret & Allan

The Choral Road continues...

Thanks to all who have supported our Cathedral trips.

Future Dates

- 27th and 28th July: Weekend at Carlisle Cathedral
- Sunday 27th October: Coach trip to Southwell

Carlisle: we will be finalising the accommodation for our weekend very shortly.

Please get in touch with Simon if you want any further information (simon.e.collins@btinternet.com or 01543 258777). Simon Collins, Director of Music

A pattern for daily prayer, so that, at home or at church, we can pray together:

Monday: Those in great poverty or need.

Tuesday: Those who have asked for our prayers: Ruth Barkaway, Anne Brazier, Roo Hubbard, David Ingram, Betty Park, Bob Smith and Margaret Stockley. Those in Derby's hospitals and hospices. All at Pool Cottage.

Wednesday: Our group of parishes.

Thursday: The church worldwide. All Christian people. The local church. The Anglican Communion.

Friday: All in need, especially the hungry, poor and homeless.

The Departed

In our prayers this week, we can remember those who have died recently, and those whose anniversaries occur near this time, among them Betty Kerton, Audrey Farmer, Frank Dixon and Beatrice Freestone.

Next Week at Melbourne: Trinity 5

The Readings at 8am and 10.30am:

First Reading: Deuteronomy 30.9-14

The Lord your God will make you abundantly prosperous in all your undertakings, in the fruit of your body, in the fruit of your livestock, and in the fruit of your soil. For the Lord will again take delight in prospering you, just as he delighted in prospering your ancestors, when you obey the Lord your God by observing his commandments and decrees that are written in this book of the law, because you turn to the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul.

Surely, this commandment that I am commanding you today is not too hard for you, nor is it too far away. It is not in heaven, that you should say, 'Who will go up to heaven for us, and get it for us so that we may hear it and observe it?' Neither is it beyond the sea, that you should say, 'Who will cross to the other side of the sea for us, and get it for us so that we may hear it and observe it?' No, the word is very near to you; it is in your mouth and in your heart for you to observe.

The Gospel Reading: Luke 10.25-37

Just then a lawyer stood up to test Jesus. 'Teacher,' he said, 'what must I do to inherit eternal life?' He said to him, 'What is written in the law? What do you read there?' He answered, 'You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your strength, and with all your mind; and your neighbour as yourself.' And he said to him, 'You have given the right answer; do this, and you will live.'

But wanting to justify himself, he asked Jesus, 'And who is my neighbour?' Jesus replied, 'A man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and fell into the hands of robbers, who stripped him, beat him, and went away, leaving him half dead. Now by chance a priest was going down that road; and when he saw him, he passed by on the other side. So likewise a Levite, when he came to the place and saw him, passed by on the other side. But a Samaritan while travelling came near him; and when he saw him, he was moved with pity. He went to him and bandaged his wounds, having poured oil and wine on them. Then he put him on his own animal, brought him to an inn, and took care of him. The next day he took out two denarii, gave them to the innkeeper, and said, "Take care of him; and when I come back, I will repay you whatever more you spend." Which of these three, do you think, was a neighbour to the man who fell into the hands of the robbers?' He said, 'The one who showed him mercy.' Jesus said to him, 'Go and do likewise.'

Additional Collect:

Gracious Father,
 by the obedience of Jesus
 you brought salvation to our wayward world:
 draw us into harmony with your will,
 that we may find all things restored in him,
 our Saviour Jesus Christ.

Gradual Psalm: Psalm 25.1-10

James Turle

- 1 To you O Lord I lift up my soul * O my God in | you I | trust;
 let me not be put to shame *
 let not my | enemies | triumph | over me.
- 2 Let none who look to you be | put to | shame:
 but let the | treacherous • be | shamed • and frus- | trated.
- 3 Make me to know your | ways O | Lord:
 and | teach me | your | paths.
- 4 Lead me in your | truth and | teach me:
 for you are the God of my salvation *
 for | you • have I | hoped • all the day | long.
- 5 Remember Lord your com- | passion and | love:
 for | they • are from | ever- | lasting.

- 6 Remember not the sins of my youth or | my trans- | gressions:
 but think on me in your goodness O Lord *
 ac- | cording • to your | steadfast | love.
- 7 Gracious and | upright • is the | Lord;
 therefore shall | he teach | sinners • in the | way.
- 8 He will guide the humble in | doing | right:
 and | teach his | way • to the | lowly.
- 9 All the paths of the Lord are | mercy and | truth:
 to those who keep his | covenant | and his | testimonies.
- 10 For your | name's sake • O | Lord:
 be merciful to my | sin for | it is | great.

Recessional Hymn at 10.30am:

1. Not far beyond the sea, nor high above the heavens, but very nigh thy voice, O God, is heard.
 For each new step of faith we take thou hast more truth and light to break forth from thy holy word.

2. The young in Christ thy scriptures feed with milk sufficient for their need,
 the nurture of the Lord.
 Beneath life's burden and its heat
 the fully grown find stronger meat
 in thine unfailing word.

3. Rooted and grounded in thy love,
 with saints on earth and saints above
 we join in full accord:
 to know the breadth, length, depth and height,
 the crucified and risen might
 of Christ, the Incarnate Word.

4. Help us to press toward that mark,
 and, though our vision now is dark,
 to live by what we see.
 So, when we see thee face to face,
 thy truth and light our dwelling place for evermore shall be. (tune: Cornwall)
