This Sunday there is a craft activity for children in the creche area. The crafts will continue there on Sundays at the 10:30am service until school goes back, with the first Junior Church being on the 8th September. Rachel Coupe

Illuminating the Church Tower:

To make your booking, please call the church office-862153. Donations to sponsor the lights for an evening should be placed in a clearly marked envelope and put in the Sunday collection or put through the Rectory letterbox.

Sunday Teas: 2.30pm - 5pm in the Honner Room every Sunday through to Festival weekend. Please keep coming for a cuppa to support us. Many thanks.

The Social Committee

Melbourne Festival Teas:

It will soon be Festival Time and our last big push of the year as far as Teas are concerned. Carolyn is at this very minute drawing up the Teas rota so if you could possibly help for a couple of hours on either Saturday 14th from 11am to 5pm or Sunday 15th from 12 noon to 4pm, please contact her on 864940 or you can contact Kate on 862153. We need lots of helpers to set up, sell the cakes and sandwiches, wash up and be runners (taking the crockery etc. up and down the stairs). Also we would like enough helpers to make up a team of sandwich makers upstairs. If you think you could help us out, please don't hesitate to offer of your time and talents, then we promise we won't bother you on the Teas front till next year! Many thanks in advance.

Carolyn Tasker and Kate Landenberger

Weddings Exhibition: Thanks!

Many, many thanks for the offers of wedding dresses and items for our display over the festival weekend. It has been a real benefice effort. Thanks again! Thanks also to Treetops Hospice for their support. We now look forward to promoting what the church can do for wedding couples. If you know anyone who is contemplating marriage in the near future, please steer them in our direction.

If you are supplying us with a wedding dress or mannequin, please bring them on Friday 13th at around 5pm or by prior arrangement with Karen or Kate via the Parish Office on 862153.

Mothers' Union News:

In August members of Mothers' Union enjoyed a sumptuous afternoon tea at the Melbourne Tea Rooms but September will bring us back to our usual pattern of monthly meetings on the first Tuesday at 2:00 so we will be gathering in Church House on the 3rd Sept.

The MU theme this year is 'Listen, Observe, Act in step with God.' This month we will explore this theme more deeply and consider our plans to support The Moses Basket initiative which aims to help refugee families where a birth is imminent. Do come along and find out more about this project...our meetings are open to all. Watch out as well for further news of how you too can support us in this work.

Ros Bell

Sidesmen's rota:

The new sidesmen's rota for September to December is now out. If you aren't on email, please pick yours up from the back of church. If you would like to help out the Sunday teams to be sidesmen, servers or on the coffee rota, please get in touch with John Tatam or Kate Landenberger via the Parish Office. (862153)

FRIENDS OF MELBOURNE PARISH CHURCH EVENTS

We have four more Friends' events planned for this year:

Thursday 29 August: Miss Marple comes to Melbourne. Jo Mallard (who actually played Agatha Christie in last year's SMP drama production) is giving a talk on police forensic work. Jo is a lecturer and crime scene investigation consultant - it promises to be a fascinating evening. Melbourne Parish Church, 7.30 pm. FREE ENTRY.

Monday 30 September: The Friends' Annual General Meeting. 7 pm, The Dower House. All members welcome (please let me or Griselda know if you are planning to attend).

Saturday 5 October: Choros Amici. The Parish Church, 7pm for 7.30 pm. We present 'the choir of friends' as part of the Melbourne Festival Fringe and with the support of East Midlands Airport. The choir's mission is to sing music to the highest possible standard, to entertain and inspire audiences and, above all, to have fun while doing so. Former winners of Sainsbury's Choir of the Year - not to be missed. Tickets (£10) available from Gordon Hughes, Forteys in the Market Place or through the Festival website. With bar.

Friday 18 October: The Dime Notes. The Parish Church, 7pm for 7.30pm. Our annual jazz night, part of the Melbourne Festival Fringe and supported by Harpurs of Melbourne. The Dime Notes dig back into the blues-drenched sounds of clarinet-driven 1920's New Orleans jazz, unearthing a repertoire of stomps, blues and forgotten gems of the era from musicals, such as Johnny Dodds, Jelly Roll Morton and Red Nichols. A rare chance to hear some great jazz in a fantastic setting. Tickets (£10) available from me, Forteys in the Market Place or through the Festival website. With bar.

I hope you will be able to join us. Gordon Hughes

Melbourne Festival:

Lots of fun events for everyone this year:

A rumble in the Jungle: Hunt down jungle artwork created by local children, with Festival artists, on the Family Trail at the Rectory, Pool Cottage and the Fire Station.

Enjoy Music Time and Story Time in the Rectory gardens and Pool Cottage. Visit story stops along the Trail.

There will be lots going on in the Church too. The Friends will have a stand; bellringers will be ringing and the Wombel makes a return visit; there will be a wedding display and a display of chasubles. Artists will be exhibiting at the back of the Church and in St Michael's House.

In the Rectory Garden we will have the ever popular Church Teas; and the ethnic arts stall, which proved very popular last year.

Magical Mayhem Magic Show:

From 5pm – 6pm on Friday 20th September at the Senior Citizens' Centre. Tickets £3. For ages 5-11.

Circus Skills Workshop:

For ages 8 – 18. Learn to juggle, spin and balance. Tickets £3. From 6.30pm – 7.30pm on Friday 20th September at the Senior Citizens' Centre.

ADVANCE NOTICE:

A date for your diaries! Karen Grewcock and I will be hosting the next MacMillan coffee morning and afternoon on Saturday 28th September. It will be the usual format 10am-12pm and 2pm-4pm, raffle, bring and buy and maybe a few surprises. We will be pleased to hear from anyone who can help in any way, baking or helping to serve. Please put the date in your diaries, do come along on the day and feel free to bring your friends! My e-mail address is: romey_cunnington@hotmail.co.uk.

Romey Cunnington

Walk and Breakfast in aid of Melbourne Senior Citizens' Centre:

Walk led by Melbourne Footpaths Group on Saturday 7th September: 9am from the Senior Citizens' Centre – 2 miles to Wilson Green Lane and back.

(Or just for breakfast from 10.15).

Breakfast: (sausage and egg cobs/ tea, coffee and orange juice)

Tickets £8 from Maggie Dobby on 863640 or Forteys

Please support this fundraising effort!

Lichfield Cathedral:

With church friends, I recently visited an excellent exhibition at Lichfield Cathedral : Space, God the Universe and Everything. The main feature is a spectacular light display filling the whole cathedral space which can be viewed standing, sitting, walking or lying on the floor (marvellous!) Well worth a visit. Exhibition runs until 26th August, tickets required and available on line.

Karen Grewcock

Please note: The office will be closed next week from Monday 26th August until Tuesday 3rd September inclusive. All emails and phone messages will be answered on my return. Many thanks.

This week in connection with Melbourne Church

Monday:	2.30pm - 5pm	Bank Holiday Teas
Tuesday:	7.25pm	Bellringing Practice
Thursday:	9.15am	Holy Communion
	7.30pm	Friends Talk on Forensics (Jo Mallard)
Saturday:	4pm	Church prepared for Sunday Worship

A pattern for daily prayer, so that, at home or at church, we can pray together:

Monday: Those in great poverty or need.

Tuesday: Those who have asked for our prayers: Ruth Barkaway, Anne Brazier, Roo Hubbard, David Ingram, Betty Park, Bob Smith and Margaret Stockley. Those in Derby's hospitals and hospices. All at Pool Cottage.

Wednesday: Our group of parishes.

Thursday: The church worldwide. All Christian people. The local church. The Anglican Communion.

Friday: All in need, especially the hungry, poor and homeless.

The Departed

In our prayers this week, we can remember those who have died recently, and those whose anniversaries occur near this time, among them Eric Hulse, Arthur Morley, Muriel Honner and Fred Heafield.

Next Week at Melbourne: Trinity 11

8am Holy Communion

(Sidespersons: Sue Dore, Joe Laban)

10.30am Parish Eucharist & Coffee

(Sidespersons: Sheena Wilkins, Margaret Murray-Leslie)

(Coffee: Mary Bolton, Rachel Short, Roddy Lott)

6.30pm Evensong

(Sidesperson: Victoria Hancock)

The Readings at 8am and 10.30am:

First Reading: Acts 5.12-16

Now many signs and wonders were done among the people through the apostles. And they were all together in Solomon's Portico. None of the rest dared to join them, but the people held them in high esteem. Yet more than ever believers were added to the Lord, great numbers of both men and women, so that they even carried out the sick into the streets, and laid them on cots and mats, in order that Peter's shadow might fall on some of them as he came by. A great number of people would also gather from the towns around Jerusalem, bringing the sick and those tormented by unclean spirits, and they were all cured.

The Gospel Reading: Luke 22.24-30

A dispute also arose among them as to which one of them was to be regarded as the greatest. But he said to them, 'The kings of the Gentiles lord it over them; and those in authority over them are called benefactors. But not so with you; rather the greatest among you must become like the youngest, and the leader like one who serves. For who is greater, the one who is at the table or the one who serves? Is it not the one at the table? But I am among you as one who serves.

'You are those who have stood by me in my trials; and I confer on you, just as my Father has conferred on me, a kingdom, so that you may eat and drink at my table in my kingdom, and you will sit on thrones judging the twelve tribes of Israel.

Additional Collect:

Almighty and everlasting God, who gave to your apostle Bartholomew grace truly to believe and to preach your word:
grant that your Church
may love that word which he believed
and may faithfully preach and receive the same;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.
