Bible Readings

Collect

Lord of creation, whose glory is around and within us:
open our eyes to your wonders,
that we may serve you with reverence
and know your peace at our lives' end,
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Old Testament Reading: Jeremiah 11.18-20

It was the Lord who made it known to me, and I knew;
then you showed me their evil deeds.
But I was like a gentle lamb led to the slaughter.
And I did not know it was against me that they devised schemes, saying,
'Let us destroy the tree with its fruit,
let us cut him off from the land of the living,
so that his name will no longer be remembered!'
But you, O Lord of hosts, who judge righteously, who try the heart and the mind,
let me see your retribution upon them,
for to you I have committed my cause.

Gospel Reading: Mark 9.30-37

They went on from there and passed through Galilee. He did not want anyone to know it; for he was teaching his disciples, saying to them, 'The Son of Man is to be betrayed into human hands, and they will kill him, and three days after being killed, he will rise again.' But they did not understand what he was saying and were afraid to ask him.
Then they came to Capernaum; and when he was in the house he asked them, 'What were you arguing about on the way?' But they were silent, for on the way they had argued with one another about who was the greatest. He sat down, called the twelve, and said to them, 'Whoever wants to be first must be last of all and servant of all.' Then he took a little child and put it among them; and taking it in his arms, he said to them, 'Whoever welcomes one such child in my name welcomes me, and whoever welcomes me welcomes not me but the one who sent me.'

Post Communion Prayer

Almighty God,
you have taught us through your Son
that love is the fulfilling of the law:
grant that we may love you with our whole heart
and our neighbours as ourselves;
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A pattern for daily prayer, so that at home or at church we can pray together:

Monday: The people of Afghanistan and Haiti.

Tuesday: Those who have asked for our prayers: Anne Brazier, Roo Hubbard, Bob Smith, Joan Tatam, Hanna King, Campbell Laird, Christopher Browne, Christine Young, Colin Moore, Enoch Tweed, Nadine Worthington, Revd Steve Short and Romey Cunningham.

Those in Derby's hospitals and hospices. All at Pool Cottage. All who are suffering from Covid-19.

Wednesday: Our benefice and our diocese. For our bishops, Bishop Libby and Bishop Malcolm, our Cathedral Dean, Peter and Area Dean, Mike.

Thursday: Our schools as they begin the new academic year. The church worldwide.

Friday: All in need, especially the hungry, poor and homeless.

The Departed

In our prayers this week, we remember those who have died recently and also those whose anniversaries occur near this time, among them Nellie Smith, William (Bill) Latchford, Florence Brame and Peggy Heafield.

If there is anyone you know who would like to go on our prayer list or who would appreciate a phone call, do please contact our Curate, Revd Alan Winfield, or the churchwardens. Thank you.

From the acting Archdeacon of Derby

'Following concerns raised by Steve and Rachel Short on the safety of ceilings in the Rectory and other structural concerns, a survey has been done which has highlighted the need for internal repairs and so Steve and Rachel will be moving to 1 Blackthorn Close in October. The intention is that this will become their permanent home as the Diocese is acutely aware of the financial burden to the Shorts of heating the Rectory, which on current figures is almost double that of a modern 4 bedroomed house. Discussions on repairs and the future use of the Rectory will be held in due course with the PCC and Church Wardens.'

Revd Canon Peter Walley, acting Archdeacon of Derby

Friends of Melbourne Parish Church - final two events of 2021

23 September (evening): Graham Oppenheimer & Friends

The renowned viola player Graham Oppenheimer brings a group of friends to perform in Melbourne Parish Church. He and his international colleagues have performed throughout the world and have played with orchestras including the CBSO, Halle, English Chamber Orchestra and Academy of St Martin in the Fields London. They will perform string quintets by Mozart and Dvorak and will be joined by local young musician and soprano, Grace Crocker for songs by Schubert. The full programme will be: Mozart String Quintet in G minor K 516; Schubert 3 Songs for Soprano and String Quartet; Dvorak String Quintet in E flat op 97.

The day after the concert, the four instrumentalists will be running two workshops for Year 6 pupils at Melbourne Junior School.

or call 07837 592596

8 October (evening): The Ben Crosland Jazz Quintet

We welcome the Ben Crosland Quintet, covering the Ray Davies songbook. Noted jazz critic Dave Gelly, writing in The Observer, said: “Ray Davies’ tunes – evocative, catchy and deceptively simple – serve his lyrics so well it is easy to take them for granted. By recasting them in the jazz idiom and delicately elaborating their harmonies, bassist and composer Ben Crosland brings them out in a fresh hue.”

Patronal Festival St Michael with St Mary

The Choir and Wardens would like to invite you to Wine, Sherry and refreshment after the 10.30am service for the Patronal Festival on Sunday 26th September. This is a traditional celebration for St Michael with St Mary and we have been looking forward to reinstating it. However, as we are still observing social distancing, refreshments will be served (if possible) outside the West Door (weather permitting). If we are inside, we encourage you to mingle sensibly with suitable distance and every effort will be taken to promote the movement of fresh air by keeping the North and South doors open.

Looking forward to seeing you Sunday 26th September.

PCC Secretary and Electoral Roll Officer

As many of you will know, I have been PCC secretary for some time and took on the role of electoral roll officer during lockdown. I'd like to pick up on a couple of tasks that were abandoned last year, namely creating a Church Directory so that everyone knows who is doing what and the list of 'data controllers' for various organisations connected to the church. With the tightening of rules regarding holding data (GDPR) it is now necessary to know who is holding personal data.

Consequently, if you are on the electoral roll, you may hear from me over the next few weeks for the purposes of gathering the information I need.

On a personal note, I am always pleased to have the opportunity to get to know people better. It will be good to hear how people are feeling, particularly as I have recently been elected to the Diocesan Synod which shapes Diocesan policies.

Sung Compline

Melbourne Parish Church Choir will be singing Compline on the Feast of St Michael and All Angels at 9.15 pm in Church on Wednesday 29th September, marking the actual day of the Patronal Festival at both Melbourne and Stanton. Lasting about 20 minutes, this is a hauntingly beautiful service in the half light of the church at night. It is almost two years since the choir offered this service as the last one was scheduled for the end of March last year. Please do come along to support this, particularly if you haven't experienced it before.

Sunday Zoom

This will now be held twice per month on a Sunday afternoon for anyone who wants to chat with others.
