Bible Readings

Collect

Risen Christ,
you filled your disciples with boldness and fresh hope:
strengthen us to proclaim your risen life
and fill us with your peace,
to the glory of God the Father. Amen.

First Reading: Acts 9.1-6

Meanwhile Saul, still breathing threats and murder against the disciples of the Lord, went to the high priest and asked him for letters to the synagogues at Damascus, so that if he found any who belonged to the Way, men or women, he might bring them bound to Jerusalem. Now as he was going along and approaching Damascus, suddenly a light from heaven flashed around him. He fell to the ground and heard a voice saying to him, 'Saul, Saul, why do you persecute me?' He asked, 'Who are you, Lord?' The reply came, 'I am Jesus, whom you are persecuting. But get up and enter the city, and you will be told what you are to do.'

Gospel Reading: John 21.1-19

After these things Jesus showed himself again to the disciples by the Sea of Tiberias; and he showed himself in this way. Gathered there together were Simon Peter, Thomas called the Twin, Nathanael of Cana in Galilee, the sons of Zebedee, and two others of his disciples. Simon Peter said to them, 'I am going fishing.' They said to him, 'We will go with you.' They went out and got into the boat, but that night they caught nothing.

Just after daybreak, Jesus stood on the beach; but the disciples did not know that it was Jesus. Jesus said to them, 'Children, you have no fish, have you?' They answered him, 'No.' He said to them, 'Cast the net to the right side of the boat, and you will find some.' So they cast it, and now they were not able to haul it in because there were so many fish. That disciple whom Jesus loved said to Peter, 'It is the Lord!' When Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he put on some clothes, for he was naked, and jumped into the lake. But the other disciples came in the boat, dragging the net full of fish, for they were not far from the land, only about a hundred yards off.

When they had gone ashore, they saw a charcoal fire there, with fish on it, and bread. Jesus said to them, 'Bring some of the fish that you have just caught.' So Simon Peter went aboard and hauled the net ashore, full of large fish, a hundred and fifty-three of them; and though there were so many, the net was not torn. Jesus said to them, 'Come and have breakfast.' Now none of the disciples dared to ask him, 'Who are you?' because they knew it was the Lord. Jesus came and took the bread and gave it to them, and did the same with the fish. This was now the third time that Jesus appeared to the disciples after he was raised from the dead.

When they had finished breakfast, Jesus said to Simon Peter, 'Simon son of John, do you love me more than these?' He said to him, 'Yes, Lord; you know that I love you.' Jesus said to him, 'Feed my lambs.' A second time he said to him, 'Simon son of John, do you love me?' He said to him, 'Yes, Lord; you know that I love you.' Jesus said to him, 'Tend my sheep.' He said to him the third time, 'Simon son of John, do you love me?' Peter felt hurt because he said to him the third time, 'Do you love me?' And he said to him, 'Lord, you know everything; you know that I love you.' Jesus said to him, 'Feed my sheep. Very truly, I tell you, when you were younger, you used to fasten your own belt and to go wherever you wished. But when you grow old, you will stretch out your hands, and someone else will fasten a belt around you and take you where you do not wish to go.' (He said this to indicate the kind of death by which he would glorify God.) After this he said to him, 'Follow me.'

Post Communion Prayer

Living God,
your Son made himself known to his disciples
in the breaking of bread:
open the eyes of our faith,
that we may see him in all his redeeming work;
who is alive and reigns, now and for ever. Amen.

A pattern for daily prayer, so that at home or at church we can pray together:

Monday: God's Creation.

Tuesday: Those who have asked for our prayers: Anne Brazier, Roo Hubbard, Bob Smith, Hanna King, Campbell Laird, Christopher Browne, Sandra Jones, Christine Young, Nadine Worthington, Revd Steve Short, Angie Heywood, Anna and Claire. Those in Derby's hospitals and hospices. All at Pool Cottage. All who are suffering from Covid-19.

Wednesday: Our benefice and our diocese. For our bishops, Bishop Libby and Bishop Malcolm, our Cathedral Dean, Peter and Area Dean, Mike.

Thursday: Our schools. The church worldwide.

Friday: All in need, especially the hungry, poor and homeless.

The Departed

In our prayers this week, we remember those who have died recently, and also those whose anniversaries occur near this time, among them George Pass, Doris Gunn, George "Richard" Heath, Harriet Wright and Madge Limbert.

If there is anyone you know who would like to go on our prayer list or who would appreciate a phone call, do please contact our Curate, Revd Alan Winfield.

Notice of Revision of Church Electoral Roll

Parish of St Michael with St Mary, Melbourne

Notice is hereby given that the Church Electoral Roll of the above parish will be revised by the Parochial Church Council, beginning on the 17th day of April 2022, and ending on the 6th day of May 2022.

After the revision, a copy of the Roll (names only) will be published by the Parochial Church Council on the church noticeboard for at least 14 days and a copy of the Roll (names only) will be available for inspection on a reasonable request being made to the Council.

Under the Church Representation Rules any lay persons are entitled to have their names entered on the roll if the person:

- (a) is baptised,
- (b) is aged 16 or over, and
- (c) has made one of the following three declarations and duly applied for enrolment.

The first declaration is that the person is a member of the Church of England or of a Church in communion with it and is resident in the parish.

The second declaration is that the person is a member of the Church of England or of a Church in communion with it, is not resident in the parish, but has habitually attended public worship in the parish during the preceding six months.

The third declaration is that the person is a member in good standing of a Church which is not in communion with the Church of England but subscribes to the doctrine of the Holy Trinity and is also a member of the Church of England and has habitually attended public worship in the parish during the preceding six months.

Application Forms for enrolment can be obtained from the Church Electoral Roll Officer. In order for a person to be entitled to attend the annual parochial church meeting and to take part in its proceedings, an Application Form for enrolment must be returned by the date shown above for the ending of the revision of the Church Electoral Roll by the Parochial Church Council.

Any error discovered in the Roll should at once be reported to the Church Electoral Roll Officer.

Dated this 14th day of April 2022

Deborah Lynch and Marcus Nolan get married...

...on Sunday 1st May at 13:00 hours in Melbourne Parish Church.
We have been touched by your messages of goodwill and are looking forward to our family and longstanding friends joining us in church.
We will be leaving the church at around 15:00 if well-wishers would like to wave us goodbye. Unfortunately owing to the large numbers attending, we have no seats to spare for the ceremony.
Letting you know we will still be known as Deb Lynch and Marcus Nolan.

Face Masks

Whilst Government guidance has changed regarding Covid restrictions and masks are no longer required please feel free to wear one and social distance if that feels more comfortable for you - especially if you (as a significant minority of the population are) are in the more vulnerable category. Masks are provided at the back of church.
Revd Dr Mike Firbank
Area Dean

Mothers' Union News

Our May meeting is on Tuesday 3rd May at 2:30. Our speaker is Beryl Murdy, who was our MU president. She will be bringing cards and other items from the literacy stall so do bring your purse as MU cards are super value. If you have any items to donate to Derbyshire Refugee Solidarity then Beryl is happy to deliver these as she is a regular visitor.... clothing and toiletries are always needed.

Are you or have you been a contributor to our church life?

We are putting together descriptions of what volunteer helpers do to enable our church life to be successful. We will invite as many contributions as possible to give us an idea of what volunteer helpers do or what they've helped with in the past.

We need to know what works and what doesn't in terms of regular helping routines. This is so that the church can benefit from your experience and ensure future helpers are supported to the best of our ability.

Work has already begun and we will be in contact over the forthcoming weeks.

Antiques Roadshow

A reminder from the Friends about the Antiques Roadshow here in church on Thursday May 5th from 2.00pm to 4.00pm.

We are delighted that Charles Hanson, local auctioneer and tv celebrity, will host the event and value your treasures. Rummage in the attic and find something to bring! You may get a wonderful surprise! It promises to be a very entertaining afternoon so please spread the word.

Entrance is free to all. A small charge will be made for each item valued.

Refreshments - cream teas and cakes, provided by our fantastic team of bakers, will be served throughout the afternoon at very modest cost.

We look forward to seeing you all here!

Janet Spencer

Date for your diaries:

On Sunday 5th June at 6.30 pm in Melbourne Parish Church there will be a civic service to celebrate the Platinum Jubilee of Her Majesty the Queen. Everyone is very warmly invited and we hope to be joined by representatives from across our community. There will be celebratory refreshments following the service.

Cathedral Visits

As well as the forthcoming daytrips to Hereford and Gloucester, we have been able to secure a weekend at Durham Cathedral on 28/29 May where we sang almost 12 years ago to the day in 2010. If anyone is interested in staying with the choir, please do be in touch as soon as possible for more details. It is always good to see familiar faces when we sing away from home.

Melbourne Choral Evensongs

These continue monthly at 6.30pm except in August on these dates: May 8, June 12, July 10, September 11, September 25 (Patronal Festival) and October 9th (Harvest). Please do join us if you can.

Easter music suggestions

Another selection of Easter music for this week, all of which you would sing or experience at Melbourne.

Please stay in touch: simon.e.collins@btinternet.com or 07808 474236.

Peace Doves soar at Derby Cathedral

Visitors to Derby Cathedral can now see 'Peace Doves', a large-scale art installation which will be on display until 12 June.

The installation was created by renowned sculptor and artist Peter Walker and features more than 8,000 paper doves suspended on ribbons above the nave, accompanied by a tranquil soundscape from composer David Harper.

The paper doves have been decorated with messages of peace, hope and love – many of which have been created by members of local community and wellbeing groups who have joined workshops run by Derby community arts organisation Artcore, and the general public.

The mass participation community arts project has also involved schools across the city and county who have made their own Peace Dove displays with the support of Peter Walker's education and arts team.

The exhibition opening will mark the start of a diverse events programme across the city with an array of free and ticketed events, workshops, talks and concerts.

This is worth a visit; it is really beautiful!
